

I definitely do not think NJ's do not call laws should be weakened.

It has been SUCH a relief to have stopped getting those offensive intrusive invasive telemarketing calls. NO leeway should be given to telemarketers. Maybe people who want to get calls from telemarketers should have to sign up for a "do call" list; everyone else should be exempt from their predations. Dear FCC: Protect the consumer and the individual.